

Shoafim Etgar Iron Chef
August 3rd, dinner

Materials: food, stoves, cooking utensils, plates and bowls etc.

Setup: have all counselors sit by bunk with a station that has a stove, utensils, and an equal amount of ingredients (counselors to set up stations are Julian, eve, claire while the other activity is being run by the rest of the staff)

Method:

-Eve, Claire and Julian do iron chef intro based on Alton Brown's and the chairman's funny/intense intro from the tv show, reveal the secret ingredient is pepper!!!! Explain the rules, the timing, and how they will be judged. They will have 20 minute to cook a meal for themselves and counselors, including one serving that they will present to the judges (Eve, Claire, Julian, and Karen). They will be judged on taste, presentation, and originality.

-Split up into bunks where the counselors are sitting in front of their stations with stoves and food. When splitting up the bunks, give each bunk an iron chef (bunk 3 is Jose Garces, 33 is Bobby Flay, 35 is Cat Cora, 13 is Masaharu Morimoto, 15 is Marc Forgione, 17 is Michael Symon)

-Cook as a bunk for 20 minutes. Counselors should make sure that their campers are cooking enough food for them all to eat, and also that they have a plate to present to the judges and one representative to explain the dish in front of everyone. Judges will be splitting their time between cooking with their own bunks and walking around to other bunks pretending to be commentators and commenting on whatever is going on in each bunk's kitchen.

-Judges will give 15, 10, 5, and 2 minute warnings. After 20 minutes, the bunks will each send their representatives to present their dishes to the judges. Judges will repeat that each bunk can be awarded up to 20 points: 10 for taste, 5 for plating, and 5 for originality. After the presentations, everyone can eat their own dinners and the judges will eat also and deliberate.

-After the meal, everyone will gather again and the judges will announce the winning bunk. That bunk will be the first bunk to make s'mores at the medura!
