

Procedures of the Nivonim 2015 Town Hall

Definitions

House of Lords

Criteria: Any chanich in Nivonim 2015 is a delegate in the House of Lords.

United States House of Representatives

Criteria: Any generally inanimate animal living in a Nivonim Binyan is a member of the United States House of Representatives.

Supreme Council

Criteria: Any madrich on Tzevet Nivonim 2015 is a member of the Supreme Council.

Chair People

Criteria: Any rosh edah of Nivonim 2015 is a chair person.

Debate Procedures

Debate procedures are determined and explained each Town Hall by the Chair People.

Voting Procedures

In order that a motion pass, it must receive, in the following order:

1. Simple majority approval of the House of Lords
2. Simple majority approval of the United States House of Representatives.
3. Simple majority approval of the Supreme Council
4. Simple majority approval of the Chair People

Should a motion not receive the simple majority approval of the House of Lords, that motion has not passed.

Should a motion receive the simple majority approval of the House of Lords but not the simple majority approval of the Supreme Council, the House of Lords may override the Supreme Council with a 7/8 majority approval.

Should the Chair People not approve a motion, it may be overridden by unanimous approvals by the House of Lords, the United States House of Representatives, and the Supreme Council.