Step 2: Discussion

First talk about how Avraham started his journey as Avram and left his home with all of these goals and blessings that God gave him, and went on to be the father of the Jewish people.

How does this text relate to our own goals and journeys at camp?

What goals did you have for yourself coming into camp this summer?
(Counselors pose an example: my personal goal was to unify my bunk)

What steps did you take this summer to achieve this goal?

Do you feel you have made a name for yourself in the edah this summer as Avraham did in the tanach?

Do you think you have grown this summer? If so how?

How do you think camp empowers you to try new things and reach your full potential? (Example: leading tefilot, taking leadership position in the bunk/Berkshires/etgar)

Do you think the edah as a whole went on any kind of journey?

Where has this journey taken the edah?

What can you do in these last few hours of camp to ensure that the goal is met?
