

8-12-08

Bunk 11 Peulat Tzrif

Trust walk/trust games

Spud

Story game – write a line of a story and pass to the next person, they write a line and fold over the first line and pass to the next person so each person only sees the line right before them

Hakarat hatov hand – traced their hand and then passed their hands around the circle where everyone had to say one nice thing about everyone in the circle and write it inside their hand

Hakarat hatov book marks – decorated foam book marks using stickers for someone else in the bunk and then someone around camp...picked names out of a hat

Painting nails

Zoom

Dance Party

Letter to Self – wrote a letter to themselves at the beginning of the session about their goals for the summer, then we returned the letters to them on the last night

Paper on forehead – everyone gets a piece of paper taped to their forehead with a word written on it, without looking at their own paper, they have to ask other people questions to figure out what is written on their head and then match up with someone else in the bunk (for example, peanut butter and jelly would go together)

Broken Telephone

Dress Up the other bunks counselors

Bracelet Making

Trust walk to moadon for movie night – got them in their pajamas and blindfolded them, trust walked them to the moadon where we uncovered their blindfolds and we watched hairspray while eating junk food

Bunk 12 Peulot Tzrif

Trust walk and getting to know each other/secret handshake/facts about each other

Writing nice things about each other

Hakarat hatov – making cards for people around camp

Playing games like Hi Bob, charades, forehead game

Dress your counselor

Dance party

Story game

Reading stories about friendship