

Peulat Shabbat

Part one: Stand up if you agree

I'm thankful to be at camp
I ask my counselors questions when I don't know something
I ask for help when I need it
I compliment my friends
I'm thankful for my staff
I say thank you when someone does something nice for me
I tell my friends I love them
I do good things because I think I'll be rewarded
Bad things happen to bad people
I love G-d
There are consequences for my actions
I feel connected to past generations of Jews
I believe that the mashiach will come
I ask G-d to keep me healthy
I am thankful for the ability to think
I believe that all people are holy
I believe that I can be forgiven
I apologize when I do something wrong
I believe that G-d answers my prayers
I care about the environment
I am thankful for my freedom
I think its important to thank G-d
I think (Charity) tzadaka is important
I believe that the world is a just place
Israel is the home of the Jewish people
I pray for peace
