

Peulat Erev for tuesday night

We all start together with the legend of "Bogrimberg"

Many Many years ago, back in the fifties, a plot of land began to be industrialized. This plot of land had never seen much action before, but ever since the land of Israel was created, the piece of land in Palmer Massachusetts seemed to be getting more and more development. Local authorities became curious as to why the land was being developed. However, upon further investigation, they realized it was just a man. But, not just any man, a very very very strange man both in terms of looks and personality. 4'7, with a wooden leg, which he had lost in a mysterious war in 1948. He was a quirky friendly bubbly man, with a deep appreciation for nature, and all of gods creations. His name was, Bogrimberg, and as you may have guessed, for him we are named eidat habogrim. You see, that plot of land that sir Bogrimberg was on way back in the day, is in fact, the moadon you are sitting in on this day.

However, after an uprising in 1986 Bogrimberg disappeared and was never heard from again. There have been reports that the disappearance may have been the work of an evil twin of Bogrimberg. However this was never confirmed.

Every Bogrimir past and present to come through camp Ramah in New England knows of the legend of Bogrimberg and preforms certain acts and customs to honor him as part of their initiation to Bogrim. Tonight, you are young, however, you are ready to set the world on fire, can you go higher? Than the sun? There's only one way to find out.

The first rule of the legend of Bogrimberg is Don't talk about the legend of Bogrimberg. The second rule of Bogrimberg is DONT TALK ABOUT THE LEGEND OF BOGRIMBERG!!!!!!!

Let us begin.

Split Into Groups.

Materials: NOne

Groups: Ice breakers

Place: Tennis Courts/ unoccupied spot on migrash

Rain Plan: Same activity, in the MoBog.

Bogrimberg was quite a social man. He loved making knew friends. In remembering his ability to always be friendly and immediately strike up conversation with anyone must make skits to explaining his disappearance. Every group must do this while using these two hebrew phrases:

Decorating the Moadon, and making it a mahkom kadosh.

Materials: Paper from omanut, Markers, Stickers (get from eva and daniel), construction paper, get from eva and daniel.

Makom Kadosh was both a really important part of bogrimbergs life as well as being a very important, part of our summer. To honor his memory, we decorate our moadon turning it into a makom kadosh, a holy place.
