

Solelim 2007

Yom Rock Cats/Harry Potter (Wednesday, July 18th, 2007) – All of Tzad Aleph went out to a ball game! We traveled to New Britain, CT to see a minor league baseball team – the Rock Cats. The kids loved the game and getting to be a part of it all as we were able to dance on the dugout! We ate lunch in our seats and bought a lot of ice cream! After the game, Solelim and Shoafim headed to Springfield

Entertainment Cinemas to see Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix. The group was thrilled to see the movie! However, those that weren't saw another movie or played games in the lobby. Overall, the day went smoothly and the majority of the campers enjoyed both of the activities. The movie theater was a great place as it was the cheapest around ($4.25 for our group of 134 people) and they were very accommodating. (planned by Jason Fruithandler & Allison Bratt)

- Yom Quassy (Wednesday, August 15th, 2007) –

1. Planning: Quassy was not number one on our list when we first set out to plan a trip. However when most other options failed it seemed to be a reliable source. It ended up exceeding our expectations. Aside from small complications on billing information the pre planning of Quassy was smooth and easy.
2. For the kids: It was a great experience for the kids. The park features both an amusement park and water park combined into one building. When we first arrived we were greeted by a park representative and every camper was stamped for free access to all rides and attractions. We spent a total of three hours in the park; however we could have spent up to about four or five without losing interest. It should be noted that the in park food was expensive and most kids spent their money on ice cream. Overall, a good trip for a day. (Planned by Eli Katzoff, Shira Rosenbaum, Sam Kuttner, and Michelle Finkle)
