Hi Josh,

Thanks for the update! This is an extremely busy time for me, so I hope you understand that I just can't answer emails as fast right now.

Ari updated me on most of the phone call, I believe. Friday's meeting sounds good. I'll keep it short so people can do what they need to do.

About the a-side trip: We went to the JCC of West Hartford. Susan Gold dealt with the money and being the liason between camp and the JCC. I do not have records of how much it cost. I will tell you that it was a GREAT time had by everyone, campers and staff alike. We did a variety of activities there and it was all inclusive with the price quoted by the JCC. These included: a dj dance party with programmed games, tie dye, access to the pool, and we were able to give kids a few dollars each to buy a drink and a snack at the snack bar (we separated out kosher items and I stood at the counter watching kids make purchases). I scheduled the whole day on a rotation, so that each edah was at a different activity at a different time, but everyone did everything by the end of the day.

About bunk 32: Is there someone living in the back room on the left? Jacob lived there last summer. It's the room I would really like to switch to. It's a little more private and quiet.

I'll try my best to be accessible in the next few days! I run my school fair for 1400 people this Sunday, so after that, I'll be more available!

Hi Liav!

Hopefully Ari or one of the other hanhallah members can update you on our conference call today, but I wanted to be sure you didn't miss out on the following pieces of information:

1. Staff week assignments: We've assigned you to be responsible for Thursday night's peulat erev with Ezra and Rafi. We will not be doing a campfire that night, instead we'll extend the after-dinner edah meetings and have a peulat erev at 9:00. Also, you and Ari are achraee for t'fillot on Sunday. (You're already running the tzad aleph t'fillot, that leaves minchah and ma'ariv for you two to be responsible for – Ari will handle ma'ariv if you've already left by then.)
2. On the latest staff week schedule, I added in a tzad aleph meeting for you to run on Friday from 2-2:30. Does that sound good to you? I also added in a note about your leading a song at dinner on Friday.
