12:05-1:15 Stations. Miktzoim needed.

- 1. Red Structure
     Series of line-up tasks

The tzrif must line up according to the following orders (one after another) and are only allowed to speak in Hebrew:

- Shortest to tallest
- Youngest to oldest
- Bar Mitzvah portion in chronological order
- Alphabetical by Hebrew first name
- Alphabetical by Hebrew last name
- Distance from camp from closest to farthest

- 2. Agam Progression (boating staff)
     Start at A-Side Agam
     Row to middle dock, grab something, come back.

Your task is to get into boats, row out to the middle dock, and grab a noodle. As these are dangerous waters, everyone must embark together; there is safety in numbers. Once one boat has the noodle, everyone should turn back and return to shore.

3. Tzad Bet Agam

Canal making with obstacles:

Your task is to create a canal that brings water from the agam to the designated point. The canal must first reach the first cone, and then must get to the second cone while avoiding the obstacles. All members of the tzrif must be involved in the digging, or else they get fewer coins.

4. Little House

Scavenger Hunt: must bring back 10 pictures at specific locations TBD to get the coveted object.

Directions: You must collect 10 of the following 15 photos. Take pictures of these on a digital camera and show them to the judge here in little house when you return. 1 coin for 10-14 pictures and 2 coins for all 15 pictures.

1. Whole tzrif with Marcia Glickman.
2. Entire tzrif jumping somewhere on tzad aleph
3. At least 3 members of the tzrif with someone from Ivrit staff (NOT JUST ANY MISHLACHAT MEMBER!)
4. Picture of the entire tzrif with Josh Edelglass somewhere indoors
5. Picture of the entire tzrif spelling out your tzrif number with only the use of your bodies
6. 5 members of the tzrif with at least 2 tzad aleph roshim
7. A picture featuring Ben Greene doing something only Ben Greene would do and at least two members of the tzrif
8. A picture featuring why Camp Ramah in New England is a Makom Kadosh
9. A picture of the tzrif in front of their actual tzrif
10. A picture of any number of campers from the tzrif reenacting a famous movie scene
11. One picture of the entire tzrif with 8 members of mishlachat
12. A picture of the tzrif sitting according to the setup of their beds inside of their tzrif
13. A picture of the tzrif reenacting the Jews receiving the ten commandments
14. A picture of 3 members of the tzrif with 3 people who have offices in the misrad
15. A picture with the entire tzrif inside a handicapped shower in the old k'far

5. Old K'far Cement slab

Bowling with their own water bottles. Dodge ball

Your task is to bowl at least one "strike" in a game of bowling. Every member of your tzrif must roll the ball at least once. You will need to provide your own pins in the form of full water bottles for every person in the tzrif. Water bottles not full? Go fill them up at the water fountain next to the Tzad Bet basketball courts. Don't have a water bottle? Go back to your tzrif and get one. If you get more than five strikes, you might get more coins!

7. Omanut (omanut staff)

Make the edah flag (canvas split into six. Every bunk must at one point go to the omanut station and paint a square to complete the flag)

Your task is to create a flag that represents your edah, your tribe. In the designated square on your edah's flag, paint something that represents your particular tzrif and the way you fit into your edah as a whole. Once completed, this flag will show how your tzrif and all of the other tzrifim come together to make one edah! But remember, the flag isn't complete until EVERY tzrif fills in a square. If you pass another tzrif from your edah on the road, it wouldn't hurt to remind them that the flag is waiting for them.

This flag will be brought to the top of the alpine tower in a display of edah glory -- so make it good!

8. Nagarut (Ron)

Your task is to create a beautiful mosaic as a tzrif. All members of the tzrif must be involved, and the design must somehow relate to Makom Kadosh.

9. A-Side Lower Migrash
sports pentathalon

Your task is to complete a sports pentathlon. Each member of your tzrif must participate in at least one activity, and activities may not be completely simultaneously. Please complete the following:

Tennis- complete at least 10 volleys in a row (back and forth over the net=1), doubles (4 participants total)

Volleyball- complete at least 10 volleys in a row (back and forth over the net=1), maximum 12 participants

Basketball- tzrif must make 10 free throws. The entire tzrif must line up at the foul line and take turns shooting until 10 shots are made.

Soccer- every member of the tzrif must dribble the ball around the cones

Softball- at least 5 people must hit the ball past the edge of the dirt around the infield

10. Bet am aleph costume closet

Everyone dress up and act out a biblical scene.

Your task is to use the costumes around in you to portray characters in one of the following biblical scenes. You must choose ONE (1) of the scenes, but may get extra coins for acting out additional scenes. It must be clear how your costumes tie into the scene!

1) The Akedah (Gen. 22)

- 2) Israelites Crossing the Red Sea (Ex. 13-14)
- 3) The Story of Balak and Balaam (this week's Torah portion!) (Num. 24)
- 4) Noah and the Ark (Gen. 6-9)
- 5) David and Goliath (1 Sam. 17)

You cannot receive a coin until your station master enthusiastically applauds your performance!

11. Mirpeset
blindfolded bench maze

Your task is to guide one member of your tzrif through the bench maze blindfolded. You may not have any physical contact with the blindfolded participant.

12. Ivrit Kitchen
cooking

Your task is to mold the cookie dough into cookies that resemble famous Jewish objects or symbols. If 7 of the cookies are different objects the group receives 2 coins instead of 1.

13. Teva Location (Teva)
collect sticks
build fire. keep it burning for 3 minutes

Your task is the most basic test of tribal survival. You must collect sticks from the surrounding area and build a fire that will burn continuously for three minutes. If the fire goes out, your challenge starts again. You may use only one match every two minutes. If your fire is deemed exemplary by any member of Tzevet Teva you will be awarded an extra coin.

- 14) Gan
Sock puppet show

Your task is to use the provided socks and prepare a puppet show at least three minutes long. Every hanich/a must have a role in the show. Characters may be made up, though extra coins may be granted for solid imitations of any hanhallah member. The show must reflect the idea of makom kadosh in camp or anywhere in the world.

16. Misrad

Camper list scavenger hunt -- longest name, most vowels, number of campers named for patriarchs and matriarchs.

Your task is to closely examine the list of chanichim this session in order to gain demographic insight into our camper population. Please find the answers to the following three out of the following five questions. If you answer all five, you will gain an extra coin.

1. Find the person with the longest name (# of letters)
2. Find the person with the most vowels in his/her name
3. Find the most common name in camp.
4. How many people in camp are named after either a matriarch or patriarch?
5. Find the last name with the most number of campers in camp (don't all have to be related)

17. Marp

Lice Check: take out a piece of rice from a plate of spaghetti using chopsticks

Using only the chopsticks given find one grain of rice in the spaghetti and take it out using the chopsticks. Each pair of campers gets 30 seconds to complete the task. If they fail, the next pair of chanichim can try and are also given 30 seconds. This continues until either a grain of rice is found, or until all chanichim have tried to find the rice. If the grain of rice is found in the first 15 seconds of the first chanichim trying and removed, the tzrif receives two coins instead of one.
