

Clique Attack

The rules:

- 3 Madrichim per table
- Chanichim must find their placecard and sit by their name. The name next to them written on the same color post it is their partner
- Chanichim have a list of questions to discuss with their dining partner or trio. They are only allowed to speak with each other until they answer all of the questions (if they don't want to answer questions that is fine, but then they can only speak to each other the whole meal). If they need to ask or say anything to anyone else it must be in unison. Once they finish their questions they should hand them in to a counselor, and once they are approved they are permitted to speak to others.
