

Yom Shrek!
Solelim 2010

7- Wake up
7:45 Tfilot
8:30 Breakfast
9:15-9:50 Nikayon

10-10:50 Create your own kingdom → Introduce it with the 'Duloc' song from Shrek the movie.

(need markers, poster board, pen, paper)

-Create a name for the kingdom

-create an anthem

-draw a map

-Write down 10 commandments of the kingdom (can be silly)

after 30 minutes each group will present its kingdom to the rest of the edah

11-11:50 Educational program about friendship

Introduction is skit about friendship between shrek and donkey from the movie, how they never left each other and sometimes get annoyed with each other – but they stuck it out and created a friendship.

Divide chanichim into five small discussion groups, then discuss the following:

-Define the word 'friend'.

-What makes someone a good friend?

-What makes someone a bad friend?

-Why is it important to have friends?

-Do you have different types of friends, e.g camp friends, home friends, school friends?

-Would you rather have many friends or one best friend?

(need: friendship bracelet string or yarn)

Make friendship bracelets!

12-12:50 Take home project (Challah boards) – we made challah boards as part of our Shabbat/Friday night take home project... (used tissue paper, modge-podge, wooden frames, shabbat shalom cutouts, tissue paper, paint, cardstock) painted frames on one side of the room and the other side tissue-papered and modge-podged their cardstock with their Shabbat shalom signs... put them together and they have a challah board. (dani and I glued little feet onto the frames before hand)

1- Lunch

1:45 Menucha

2:45-3:45 Daber program (make signs for all the bunks on tzad aleph) – Painted wooden planks with short Hebrew phrases and pictures to be hung permanently in the bunk, i.e. 'mitkalchim b'miklachat' (showering in the shower) or 'yishanim b'mitah'

(sleeping in bed). The goal is for the kids to learn a verb along with the noun, and for us not make the same signs every year. We also taught the kids what each one meant, and the pictures are for future generations to understand what they mean.

3:45-4:45 Decorate gingerbread fairytale cookies – Chanichim divide into two groups and half of the edah decorated gingerbread cookies and half made parfaits – then switched. For the ingredients, the chanichim needed to answer trivia questions about Shrek the movie.
