Israel - 1998

PREPARATION:

- Put big X's all over A-side & on tables in the chadar ocher to build suspense but don't tell the kids what the day is about
- ★ Decorate Bunk 26 <sup>(or other empty room)</sup> as a spaceship: cover all windows to ensure complete darkness, put random shiny silver & blue paper all over, cover one light with purple/blue cellophane ~~or~~ (what works best is to first cover the light w/white paper, then cellophane), cover flashlights w/different colored cellophane and point them in different directions around the room.
- Secure a tv for the day in the spaceship
- Make video of aliens (see later)
- Get supplies for stations and set them up on the upper migrash in the morning

THE DAY:

- All counselors wear black t-shirts & khakis. The shirts have white letters on them that say F.B.I.
- Outside of 26 an intro was given by a counselor, saying ~~the~~ welcome to FBI headquarters and introducing the idea that the kids are researchers. This is interrupted by an agent running up and frantically telling about the discovery of a spaceship which needs to be investigated immediately. The kids are divided into groups (archaeologists, doctors, mathematicians, historians, & journalists) to make radiation-proof hats for safety w/ construction paper & string.

- Reconvene in a line by group to go into the 2G spaceship & have all but the colored light off and eerie music playing.
- Show alien intro video: A few counselors dressed in black trashbags w/ silver contact paper all over faces & speaking like aliens say that the spaceship is a time machine and the kids must find artifacts to bring back for the aliens to let them return to the ~~future~~ present.
- They leave the time machines and start station rotations (see those sheets later) and at the last station each group gets an artifact that has to do w/ that station.
- They then go back to 2G for another alien video just to say good job, go refuel (eat lunch) then you can go back home.
- ~~After~~ When they return, they find that the artifacts have been stolen and they go on a treasure hunt to find them (the clues are X-Files related).
- When all the artifacts are found they stand outside 2G waiting to go home then the aliens run out saying haha we're going to kidnap you kids instead of the artifacts. Then one FBI agent pulls out silly string and throws other bottles to other agents, <sup>(NOT KIDS)</sup> and they chase & kill the aliens w/ silly string & save the day!

• Then they watch a 2-part non-scary
episode of X-Files in 2G.
