

A History of Shoafim

Program type: peulat erev

Approx duration: 45 minutes

One line description- a history of shoafim, working together to explain how shoafim came to be

Overall goal/ themes: Sho up, get to know each other, team building

Methods used: ice breakers, etc

Supplies needed: random objects- meah milim things- broom, dustpan, bench, waterbottle, rocks, t-shirt

Ideal location and room setup- beit am aleph

Tzevet roles- 2 tzevet per group, 1 or 2 peulat erev vaad circulating

Instructions for running the program

- 10 minutes: Josh Edelglass introduces good life chug
- 5 minutes: divide into groups
- 10 minutes: icebreakers- quick name go around, one word stories (each kid says one word to tell a story)
- 3 minute shtick- finding the artifacts (random objects) that have been 'hidden' around the moadon
- 10 minutes: bag of "artifacts" have to create a story and a presentation about the history of Shoafim. 1 item per kid, each has to explain their artifact
- 10 minutes: each group presents their story
- rad hayom