

Bon Voyage Tzad Aleph

Program Type: Peulat Erev

Approximate Duration of the Program: 50 minutes

One-Line Description: Chanichim will conclude the machzor by bridging them from tzad aleph to tzad bet

Overall Goals/Themes: Bonding, Edah unity, Concluding thoughts

Methods Used: Evoking sentimental memories, Friendgineering

Supplies/Resources Needed:

- 70 Worksheets
- 70 Pens
- Diplomas (Full sheets for second sessioners and half-sheets for full sessioners)
- Canoe
- Plastic Bags
- Headlamp

Educational Content: Thinking about their past selves and preparing for the future

Ideal Location and Room Setup: tzad aleph agam with pairs already set up

Tzvet Preparation and Roles: tzevet will be assigned to watch over one of the groups of chanichim and make sure that they are on task

Instructions:

1. Chanichim will arrive to the agam with towel. The pairs will already be spread out among the sand. They will enter by bunk to find the sheet of paper with their name on it.
2. With their partner, they will fill out their own worksheets and then discuss their questions
3. *** will then lead them in the transformation of their worksheets to a paper boat.
4. They will come up to the canoe and trade their folded up boat for a A side certificate of completion.
5. ** will then row the boat to tzad bet and bury them (recycle them somewhere on tzad bet)

Name:

Tzrif:

Shoafim

What is one great tzad aleph memory?

What are you going to miss most about tzad aleph?

In what ways would you have done tzad aleph differently?

What was your favorite part of Shoafim?

Describe your Shoafim kayitz in one word. Why?

What is something that you have learned through your camp experience?

What was one new thing that you tried this machzor?

Who is your role model here at Machane Ramah? (can be chanich or tzevet)

One thing I would like to improve on before I get to tzad bet is _____? Why?

How do you think tzad bet will be different from tzad aleph? The same?

What are you looking forward to most on tzad bet?

What do you think you will be like in Nivonim?

How do you think camp will have changed in the time from now until when you are in Nivonim?

What's a goal you have for the rest of your camp experience?