Location activity

Kibutz - Volleyball courts:

A kibbutz is a collective community in Israel that was traditionally based on agriculture. The first kibbutz, established in 1909, was Degania. Today, farming has been partly supplanted by other economic branches, including industrial plants and high-tech enterprises Kibbutzim began as utopian communities, a combination of socialism and Zionism.

- Start with count from 1 - 10 game - chanichim needs to count from 1-10 without saying the same number at the same time.
- One camper will get a song to listen to with headphones. Other campers will need to explain the words from the "mea milim without writing it. Each hanich has 2 words to guess as a start.

Startup nation taftafot (Drip irrigation) - Gan:

Drip irrigation is a type of micro-irrigation that has the potential to save water and nutrients by allowing water to drip slowly to the roots of plants, either from above the soil surface or buried below the surface. The goal is to place water directly into the root zone and minimize evaporation.

There are 2 buckets (one with water and one empty). Chanichim stand in line and need to pass the water from one bucket to another using plastic cups (each hanich have one, passing to each one).

Welcome to the army! - Tetherball court

Scary ball/flinch and simon says:

Explain to chanichim that the relevance of this is that in the army, everyone has to listen exactly to their commander.

All campers stand in a circle, the counselor stand in the middle. The counselor will hold a ball he'll try to "scare" the campers by pretending he will throw the ball toward them. The campers will need be banned to move unless the counselor is actually throwing towards him. In case that a camper moved he goes out of the game. If he wants to get back in the game he need to put on uniforms under 60 seconds.

If there's extra time do Simon says

Basketball court - Birthdays – play israeli birthday game

Dag maluach:

All the chanichim standing on the migrash line, counselor standing in the middle closing his eyes and saying "1 2 3 dag maluach" and meanwhile the chanichim need to get to the other side. When the counselor open his eyes chanichim must freeze. Chanichim needs to get to the other side without counselor see them move.
