

Family Feud

Location: TENNIS COURT

Madrachim Roles:

- One MC
- Reassure chanichim that the game is fair when they start yelling that it isn't
- Control the chanichim in your kvutzah and make sure that they are participating in the peulah
- Each madrich should keep score for their

Steps:

- Split the Edah into 5 groups--list of groups will be printed and announced, each group will sit in a different location on the tennis court
- The MC will ask the first question to the first kvutzah and begin a two minute timer. They must answer the question with the answers that they think most people would have chosen. If they answer with something that is not on the list, they get one strike. When time runs out or they get three strikes, the MC moves on to the next team and asks the next question. Each team will get two questions.
- Getting the last answer earns the team 100 points and each answer above that adds 100 points (the second to last answer is 200 points)
