

Peulat Erev 8/7: Erev Gotta Catch 'em All

Location: BAG/B side area

Materials: clues, 7 posterboards, markers, speakers, music

20 min Catching portion: Group finds the pokemon using the clues.

20 min Training portion: Group makes up the attacks, and writes pokemon card for us.

20 min Battle portion: Group battles the pokemon in a tournament.

Activity: Theedah is divided into 7 groups with a counselor in each group. Another 7 counselors are tasked with being pokemon and are hiding in various locations throughout Tzad Bet. Each group is given clues to find a specific pokemon. Once the group has found its pokemon, they must make a pokemon card for it, including coming up with attacks and “training” the pokemon. Then the groups rejoin AND BATTLE FOR SUPREMACY!!!!

Pokemon and clues:

Matt (Grass): Little House—Other groups will go green with envy when you catch this grass type pokemon. He likes to roam and loves the Dixie Chicks, so check for him searching for shelter near some wide open spaces.

Jacob (Fire): Marp Medura Spot—Some like it hot, including this fire type pokemon. He’s a great fighter – you really couldn’t ask for s’more. If you get burned though, don’t worry, help is nearby.

Elena (Water): B Side Amphitheater—This water type pokemon likes to go with flow She’s probably off somewhere watching the agam do the same.

Gefen (Ground): Hole by Sif—This ground type pokemon likes to get low and stay there. He’s also a me’ah milim fan, so catch him near a center of limud.

Ruthie (Dark): Voc-Ed Basement—“Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that” – this pokemon. Fortunately, she is hidden deep below the ground in a place where light never penetrates, only the occasional group of campers during a tornado warning.

Bentzi (Rock): Rock piles by 67—Hanhalah sees a lot of this rock type pokemon. When he’s not battling, he’s busy dodging fly balls.

Yael (Electric): Alpine Tower—It’s electric *boogie woogie woogie*. This electric type pokemon has been seen snooping around large landmarks searching for some heat lightning.
