

NivKudiyah: Peulat Erev 7/11

Location: Tzad Bet tennis courts or Old Chadar (ughHH)

Plan:

1. Intro from emcees (see script below). Explain peulah.
2. Edah is divided into 10 groups. Stay seated until all groups are read. Each madrich assigned to a group and should supervise throughout the peulah. Be enthusiastic and get them into their “edah”/theme.
3. Each group is an “edah” at camp. They must act like their group and perform a routine that encapsulates that group’s vibe. We’ll give them a song, but they can perform a dance / sing / act something out if they want to.
4. Split into groups and give 25-30 mins to plan out their routine. They can be in/around the BAG outside. They can run back to binyanim and change into costumes and get props if necessary.
5. Meet back in the BAG by 9:30 to have performances.
 - Each madrich/a can emcee at different points between each performance
 - Just make up an intro for the next group
 - We should all dress up since we’re emcees!

NivKudiyah, NivKudiyah, NivKudiyah, NivKudiyah! A combination of...Nivonim and Zimkudiyah. Ha Yom Shlishi...this Tuesday Tuesday Tuesday! Be Beit Am Gadol ha erev hazeh.

Tonight, Nivonim will make history as the first edah to single-handedly produce our own Zimkudiyah! The edah will be separated into several groups, and you will be tasked with creating a performance that embodies the essence of your “edah.” You will be assigned a song to incorporate into your routine in some way. Costumes and props are encouraged. Creativity is mandatory. You will have 25 minutes to create the performance of a lifetime. Here are your groups:
