

Name: Colors of Your Personality (Adaptation) (1 hr.)

Goal: ~~To have~~ staff learn how to work on a team of
 To expose staff to different ~~sub-cultural~~ styles/approaches that may exist when people come together to work as a team. To learn to deal with these differences.

Implementation:

1. Explain how four colors represent four different personality types
 (10 min)
 Red - thinks from without (sensing) and uses logic to solve problem (thinking) orange - thinks from ~~without~~ ^{within} (feeling) and uses feelings to solve problems (feeling) yellow - thinks from within (intuitive) and uses logic
 green - thinks from within and uses feelings
2. Give every participant four colored stickers and ask them to (10 min)
 put them in an order that best represents them him/herself.
3. once everyone has four colors on their body tell them to find people w/ the same order of colors.
 (15 min)
~~Sicha~~ Sichu question: What are the strengths and weaknesses of working w/ people who approach things the same way?
11. Get into even groups of people w/ different color orders.
 (20 min)
 Sichu questions: A. Discuss personal experiences in such situations
 B. Discuss how you can approach situation among ourselves
 C. (Sikkum) how do you respond to kids who approach problems in ~~one~~ each of these ways.

Materials: colored stickers, large paper, markers