

Shaofim and Amitzim Peulat Erev

Everyone will start off together with the parachute and play where the wind blows

PART 1:

- Switch places if your favorite color is blue
- Switch places if your favorite color is purple
- Switch places if your favorite food is pizza
- Switch places if your favorite sport is basketball
- Switch places if it is your first summer at camp
- Switch places if you like to read books
- Switch places if you have a brother
- Switch places if you have a sister
- Switch places if your chug is boating
- Switch places if your shorts are green
- Switch places if you are in a bunk with the number 8
- Switch places if you went on the water rides at six flags

PART 2:

Break up into 4 smaller groups. Stand in a circle and everyone will go around and say their name with a hand motion. Next play musical memory. (Someone leaves the circle and everyone finds a partner and pick a song out with them. Once the person returns to the circle everyone puts their hands out and the person in the middle tries to match up the 2 parts of the song.)

PART 3:

Each small group will be given 5 props. A theme will be called out and each group has to make a skit with their props and all of their group members

Themes:

- Dinner in the chadar
- Swimming in the agam
- Doing nikayon in the bunk
- Staff during staff meeting