

Ramah

YEAR-ROUND

Ramah August Family Camp Detailed Packing List

Everyday Clothing

- Underwear
- Socks
- 6 T-Shirts
- 3 Pairs of Shorts
- 2 Pair of long pants
- 2 Sweatshirts (temperatures can be cool at night)
- Hat
- Sunglasses
- Pajamas
- Bathing suit
- Sandals and/or flip-flops
- Closed toed shoes/sneakers (recommended for sports and nature walks)
- Rain jacket, Rain Boots (it can be very wet when it rains!)

Special for Tye Dying – White cotton shirt and or socks

Clothing – Shabbat

In general, the Camp Shabbat dress code is very relaxed, though we do ask that you not wear jeans or T-shirts to Shabbat services and Friday night dinner. Suggested items include:

- Button down shirt
- Polo shirt
- Skirt
- Dress
- Cardigan
- Khaki pants

- Non-athletic shorts
- Comfortable shoes are always a must

Linens – We will provide bedding (sheets and a summer weight blanket) and towels but please bring:

- o Pillow (no need if you upgraded to the guest house or the New Marp)
- o Washcloth
- o Beach Towel - for swimming and boating
- o Warm blanket if you want (strongly recommended in standard bunk housing)

Toiletries

- Soap, Shampoo, Conditioner
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Hairbrush, hair dryer, etc.
- Medication (both prescription and routine over the counter options)

Miscellaneous

- Kippah
- Talit and Tefillin
- Sunscreen
- Bug spray
- Flashlight
- Books
- Sports equipment, including mitts, cleats, etc.
- Umbrella
- Fan

What Not to Bring

- Outside food
 - o Please note: Camp Ramah is a nut free facility
- Expensive electronics
- Valuable Jewelry