

Ramah Family Shabbaton
Detailed Packing List

Clothing

- Underwear
- Socks
- 3 T-Shirts
- 2 Pairs of Shorts
- 2 Pair of long pants
- 1 Sweatshirt (temperatures are cool early morning and at night)
- 1 Warm Jacket (keep your eye on the weather reports)
- White shirt or socks to tie-dye (optional)
- Hat
- Sunglasses
- Pajamas
- Bathing suit (optional)
- Sandals/flip-flops
- Closed toed shoes/sneakers (recommended for sports and nature walks)
- Rain jacket, Rain Boots

Clothing – Shabbat

In general, the Camp Shabbat dress code is very relaxed, though we do ask that you not wear jeans or T-shirts to Kabbalat Shabbat and Friday dinner. Suggested items include:

- Button-down shirt

- Polo shirt
- Skirt
- Dress
- Cardigan
- Khaki pants
- Dress slacks
- Non-athletic shorts

Linens – We will provide bedding (sheets and a summer weight blanket) and towels but please bring:

- Pillow (no need if you paid for a Guest House upgrade)
- Washcloth
- Beach Towel (for swimming and boating)
- Warm blanket (a must for non-winterized housing)

Toiletries

- Soap, Shampoo, Conditioner
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Hairbrush, hair dryer, etc.
- Medication (both prescription and routine over the counter options)

Miscellaneous

- Kippah
- Talit and Tefillin
- Sunscreen
- Bug spray
- Flashlight
- Books or games (we'll have plenty of games, but you can always bring your own!)
- Sports equipment, including mitts, cleats, etc.
- Umbrella

What Not to Bring

- Outside food
 - Please note: Camp Ramah is a kosher and nut free facility
- Expensive electronics
- Valuable Jewelry